To the READER.

SInce Prefaces to Auction-Catalogues have been of late censured more customary than instructive, and that the Buyers set up for better Judges of the Editions, use, scarcity of the Books exposed to Sale, than the Men of the Profession; I am resolved to humour the Age, to say as they say, to let them believe as they please, to think as they list. The Title informs you the Library (except the Rabbinical Part, generously given away by his Will) was Dr. Seddworth's, late Master of Christ-Colledg in Cambridg, which by several Learned and Knowing Persons hath been esteemed an excellent and valuable Collection, amongst which, great variety of Books not usually heard of, or very rarely met with, of the most genuine and critical sort of Learning: It's therefore reckoned a favour to the Auctioneer, an Act of Prudence in every Gentleman to view before-hand what he hath a mind to buy, to which purpose constant Attendance will be given for three whole days before the Sale, from Nine in the Morning to Six in the Evening.

Conditions of Sale.

I. HE who bids most is the Buyer, and if any Difference arise, the said Book or Books shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again, or the said Difference decided by the Sales-Man.

II. That all the Books in the Catalogue (if not otherwise expressed, are perfect, for ought we know; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That all Gentlemen will be pleased to give in their Names and Places of Abode after their buying any Book or Books, paying 3 d. in the Pound in part of the Book or Books they shall buy (if demanded), and so proportionably for all lesser Sums.

IV. That no Person is to bid less than 6 d. a time under a Pound, and 1 s. above a Pound for Folios, 4 d. for Quartos, 2 d. for 8°, 12°, 24°, the first bidding left to the pleasure of the Company.

V. That the Money for the Book or Books bought is to be paid within Fourteen Days after the Auction is ended, at the place of Sale, where the Books shall be ready to be delivered to them, or their Order.

This Auction will be held at Roll's Coffee-house on Monday the second of February, 169⅓ from Two of the Clock in the Afternoon to Eight, and so continued daily till all are sold; where the Books will be exposed to view three Days before the Sale begins.
